February 10 and 24
April 6

NOTE: For full consideration for scholarships or assistantship, applicants should audition by February 24th, 2012.

In addition to the other grants, scholarships, and federal loans available to students, a Graduate Assistantship, Tuition Reductions, and Fellowships are being offered in the bassoon studio for the 2012-2013 academic year.

BASSOON STUDIO GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP

The School of Music at the University of North Carolina School of the Arts offers the Master of Music and Professional Artist Certificate for Bassoon. The bassoon assistantship is available beginning in the 2012-2013 academic year and can cover the cost of full-tuition. The graduate assistant works closely with Saxton Rose and duties may include instruction, reed-making supervisions, ensemble assignments and other duties assigned by the School of Music.

GRADUATE TUITION REDUCTIONS AND ADDITIONAL AWARDS

Fellowships, Graduate Tuition Reductions and other scholarships of varying amounts are awarded on a competitive basis, based on the recommendations of the School of Music faculty.

BERLIN PHILHARMONIC WIND QUINTET RESIDENCY

In February 2013, UNCSA will host the Berlin Philharmonic Wind Quintet for a teaching and performance residency on campus. Activities will include studio and chamber music master classes, topical discussions, and a performance in Watson Recital Hall.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

UNCSA was founded as the nation's first public conservatory for the arts, dedicated entirely to the intensive training and career development of aspiring artists in the performing, visual and moving image arts. It is a unique and extremely effective environment for students looking for a performance-focused education to refine their playing and for career preparation. Degrees are available at the undergraduate, master's, post-master's, and high school level.
